THAT SO & SO SHOULD DO SOME TIME

by James Ford

Do something NAACP, SCLC, BLACK LIVES MATTER, HISPANICS, ASIANS. All concerned organizations, make sure this Traitor goes to Jail. WOW! Journalists being killed, points finger at his administration, as well as the bounties on the head of American Soldiers in foreign countries. What about his best friend, a pedophile, being found dead in a jail cell without any guards watching him, while being on suicide watch? Some say he might have helped fund the January 6th Insurrection at the White House.

Now, my people may ask if he was holding back on talking about CV19? Was he trying to cut a deal with the companies? He could be a profiteer. With these thoughts, New York State waiting on him. Jail might be too good. Maybe the Hot Seat is what he needs. You know he gave it to a lot of people before he left office - REAL TALK - About the CON MAN who just left the White House.

Our dear Heavenly Father, we ask your blessings upon each heart that gives to make this newsletter.

STOP SELLING OUT BLACK AMERICAN CULTURE

by Theo Broughton and the Hood Research Team

Modern day Rap music is a primary ingredient of Hip-Hop music and culture. The origins of Rap can be traced back to the West African griot tradition. Griots were an important part of the culture and social life of the village. Griots told and retold the historical narratives and oral traditions of their people, keeping their stories and traditions alive. The Griots may use their vocal expertise for gossip, satire and political commentary. They focused on bringing families together and providing positive narratives in difficult times and times of turmoil and pain.

The evolution of Rap music has not been positive. Some Rappers today write and perform songs that graphically describe violence, substance abuse, misogyny and materialism to excessive measures. They are characterizing a factually ugly and dysfunctional condition of life. Remember, rap is an artistic depiction of real life in American cities and ghettos. These geographic locations are characterized by limited educational availabilities, poverty and the ubiquitous systemic racism.

While all of this is true, it is equally true that some of today's Rap music reflects a Black American culture that is negative in nature. It is the very same false and negative perception of Black American culture that the dominant White culture has been attempting to assign to us for centuries: a violent, misogynistic, uncaring, inhuman and negative culture. This perception is an urban myth and regrettably some Rappers are assisting in reenforcing this big lie.

The glorification of these Rappers by giving them awards of merit is a huge mistake, unless you desire to perpetuate the myth of the negative Black American culture. -Al Martin

My Brothers' Keeper

Speak to me when YOU enter the room. Show respect to your elders, not just the elderly. Help a child with their homework before teaching the jump shot. Look into my eyes when you speak to me. Help me when I need you. Tell me when you need help. Keep me as your brother as I will always hold you as mine.

UNITED WE STAND

African Americans are living in troubling and confusing times, we can no longer trust our elected officials, as deception is running through the land. We as a people have come to far to be denied rights that are due to us. Through faith and trusting in our Almighty God, we are going to thrive and survive in this promise land called the United States. We are going to have to recommit ourselves back to the old ways, back when black people worked together as one.

THE VOICE OF ONE FROM THE WINDY CITY

SLEEPWEAR IS NOT OUTERWEAR

I've noticed many people shopping, jogging, taking walks, etc., wearing pajamas!!! We must abandon the notion that it's cool. Also, you're out all day in your pajamas and Covid is still in the air. That wouldn't be an issue, except; they haven't ruled out it staying on clothing. Now you come in sitting on your couch or laying down to take a nap with the virus on you. BE SMART!!!!
